Midnight Express (Wraith: The Oblivion)

Synopsis

A journey of mystery and adventure for Wraith: The Oblivion. The light at the end of the tunnel... An unearthly whistle in the distant night signals the arrival of the ghost train known only as the Midnight Express. Cobbled together from the remains of train wrecks spanning the ages, the train provides the only reliable means of safe passage through the Tempest to virtually any destination in the Shadowlands. ... is the Midnight Express! Controlled by Ferrymen, the Midnight Express winds through the Tempest nightly, bringing wraiths to destinations across the Shadowlands. Its strict neutrality maintained by the Ferrymen, it has become a popular meeting place for members of rival factions within wraith society. But the Ferrymen also use the train as a means of finding those interested in a far different kind of journey -- that toward Transcendence. Midnight Express includes: six ready-to-play adventures, ranging from the streets of the Old West to the dining car of the Orient Express; complete descriptions of a dozen Midnight Express cars suitable for integration into your own chronicle; and Nicholas, the enigmatic Ferryman who maintains the Midnight Express.
