Customer Reviews

To the author, Karen McQuestion, all your character's are well defined which makes me feel that I can visually see what each and every character looks like, see what they are wearing, see their facial reactions, and what each one is thinking, their likes and dislikes, their personalities, weakness, their courage, their concerns etc. Your descriptions are spot on, even when you are telling a reader about the not so nice people. You describe clothing, scenery, places, things etc. To me it is like I am watching a movie and can see everything you see in your head. I like the different personality's that Russ, Nadia, Mallory and Jameson have. All different. I also like the cover which showâ™s the main 4 characters. You have accomplished to educate me and have me hooked on a genre I had not read before. Your descriptions of the power's that Nadia, Mallory, Jameson, Russ, Sam Specter and others were intriguing . You have also educated me about the Associates vs. the Praetorian Guard. I Google everything that I don't know about and I did Google and got educated about the Praetorian Guard in 275 BC, and other things you mentioned. You had to have done a lot of research with all that is in this series. I thoroughly enjoyed everything in Absolution. 58 chapters in this story and they flew by for me for sure. Thank you Karen McQuestion. I kept wanting to turn the pages to see what was happening or what was going to happen next. I couldn't turn the pages fast enough. There are many twists and turns and unexpected happenings through out the story, it was a great interesting read. I am not a spoiler so I will carefully write the following. After reader's read Absolution they will know who I am talking about. I really appreciated Karen McQ.
