Customer Reviews

Since I read Wraith: the Oblivion, I have been in love with the dark romanticism and drama of the Restless Dead. Most to my pleasure, the Book of Legions has maintained a feeling not different from that of the rest of the publishing line for Wraith: the Oblivion. In the Book of Legions you will find all you wanted to know about the Legions and the obscure machinations of the Deathlords. It presents information on the organization and history of the armies of the dead, new powers rising in the shadows of Stygia, insight into the secret agendas of the Deathlords and facts on the current political situation of the Underworld. Without a doubt, the Book of Legions is an excellent sourcebook for Wraith: the Oblivion and an essential complement for Ends of Empire. Whether you want to play a member of one of the Legions, or only want to use the conflicts and power struggle among the Deathlords as a background for your chronicle, the Book of Legions is a great asset for any storyteller or player who enjoys playing a part in the unfolding events set in the world of the Restless Dead.
