I've worked with many converts and recommending books has always been quite tedious, due to bits and pieces of vital information being in various books. This book contains everything that a convert would need to know, inwardly and outwardly. It beautifully balances ritual acts with the inner dimensions of worship. It always brings the rituals back to the essence of faith. The author touches on jurisprudence (fiqh), creed ('aqidah), prophetic history (sirah), and ethics/ etiquette (adab). This will definitely be the number one book I recommend to any new Muslim. Apart from the content, it is beautifully laid out, the typography is classy, and overall a pleasure to read. Well done to all those who contributed to this work.

Islam is well-constructed in a way that the guidelines are precise as is a relatively new religion compared to Hinduism and still in a developmental stage from which evolution occurs every single day. You can know the structure family which lies at the centre of the society and Islamic faith has charted out a wise society based on the family. This book puts a lot of emphasis on the role of parents and responsibility in the Islamic way of life in their description. In the last, You will get a gift which is ``33 Natural Hair Care Recipes A New Look to Hair Care for Womenâ™. This will be a total solution to your hair.
