What a terrific book. Or bunch of cards. Or whatever this is. I'm so very happy that I have one. Spiritual, aesthetically satisfying, and full of content.

Wow!! Absolutely breathtaking!! The artwork is unbelievable!! The authors and creators were genius!The prayers and scriptures are in english, then in Sanskrit, then directly translated in our alphabet from Sanskrit!! For anyone curious about Hinduism, you will be taken by the beauty of this deck!!!It makes a beautiful gift!!!!

The Gita Deck is bound to please fans of Hindu artist Indra Sharma. Beautiful reproductions of his art on the outside of the card, interpretations of passages from the Bhagavad Gita on the other side.

This won't cover everything in the Gita, but it certainly will give you a taste of the wisdom that the Gita offers. Be sure to check out Sharma's other deck, Gods and Goddesses. It is equally beautiful!

This is a gorgeous deck : the paintings are just lovely, and the quotations (in sanskrit and in english - with pronunciation and meaning) are lucid and wonderfully chosen. Truly a treasure.

The friend I ordered this for is well-read in Hinduism. She is a yogin and Ayurvedic practitioner. She has very much enjoyed using the cards as a starting point for meditations and has often mentioned how much she enjoys having them.

I didn't find that the art always corresponded to the passages, so if you plan to use these for passage meditation, sometimes it doesn't work all that well. That being said, the images are beautiful and the cards are a handy way to get a passage for the day.

I love this deck. I give out individual cards as gifts to others. They're that incredible. I highly recommend this deck.

I brought this set to introduce the concepts of the Holy Gita to my children. It is beautifully illustrated. I would recommend it to anyone interested in an introduction to the Gita. It comes in a box so storage is easy. Thanks
