Shatter Me (The Jaded Series Book 1)

Synopsis

Pain. That's a word Bailey Winsor knows well, having endured it since she was a child from the people that were supposed to protect her. Just when her life appears normal, something Bailey has never experienced, she meets a man and falls in love. Love can be deceiving. Bailey jumps from the frying pan that was her childhood and into the burning bowels of hell, which is her sick and twisted husband. It's hopeless. Suffering more years of abuse, Bailey eventually realizes that she has no choice but to run. Forced to stop in a small town in Ohio, Bailey encounters a town full of people that welcome her with open arms, especially Jaxon Walker, the tattooed and pierced local bar owner. Bailey has secrets she's unwilling to reveal. Jaxon senses her fear and refuses to give up trying to discover them. Will Bailey be brave enough and learn to trust Jaxon with her deepest secrets? Will Jaxon be strong enough to protect Bailey when her past comes knocking at her door? *WARNING! This book contains content like rape, drugs, and hard situations that may trigger bad memories for those that have been in similar situations. Some parts are quite vivid and is not for the faint of heart or for anyone that is offended by graphic physical and sexual abuse scenes. Please, if any of this bothers you DO NOT purchase this book! Not suitable for anyone under 18. *THIS BOOK HAS BEEN RE-EDITED AND REVISED AS OF NOVEMBER 26, 2015.

Customer Reviews

I wasn't sure if I'd like the book or not as I began reading. I started with the sample and was on the fence, but jumped off and grabbed the full copy before I could debate with myself. The descriptive portions on room details were my point of contention, (and a couple grammatical and spelling errors.. that are NOT distracting. I noticed them but they aren't enough to bug even me.. and I always notice those kinds of errors.) but now that I'm finished with the book.. I think I was just in one of those moods as I started to read. Because as soon as I had the full copy and began reading further, those wordier details formed into the pictures I'm used to when I read. I only include that in this review to mention it and assure any readers of this that may have the first instinct on that issue that I did that you should jump off that fence with me. Trust me. The book IS a hard read. If you have triggers.. this book WILL bring them to the surface. The trigger scenes are detailed and HARD to read. It's a story about an abusive relationship that is so horrific that it's impossible to read without feeling like laying down the book is the only option to not feel Bailey's pain. But it is accurate. It's detailed for a reason. You can't understand just how soul shattering all of her life has been for Bailey without those details. It's a miracle in itself that she's alive in the beginning of the story. And yet another miracle that she's still strong enough to make her escape and find a new life, trust and love again. *spoiler alert What happened to Anna tore my heart out of my chest. I hate that her part of the story ended the way it did. But in the theme of this story.. I understand why the author took that path with her.
