Customer Reviews

Any aspiring writer will be able to learn a great deal from this How to Write Erotica book. What is worth noting is that the contents of this book came from the actual experience of the Author--a considered Master in writing Erotica books. This makes this book credible and worth considering. This book has been equipped with things that a writer or a would be writer will need--the common tools to be used as an erotic writer, the essential how-tos, and so much more. This is book worth keeping.

If you're an aspiring writer and want to explore the world of erotica, this book is the most comprehensive guide you'll ever need, very detailed and on point. It provides clear explanation on choosing topics, plots, twists, developing characters and a quick overview on uploading your book for self-publishing.

I think it is quite in-depth and appropriate for both beginning and experience erotica writers. Genevieve Marchand really gets into the details of how to write and market erotica, including how long your stories should be, where to get inspiration, what sub-genres of erotica to write in, and so forth. Inspiring read!

Great book on writing. Really breaks down how to write good erotica. I really found the information can apply to other genres and was an interesting read. Definitely gave me some things to consider in my own writing.

Impressive! Such a very impressive and exciting book to read on how to write erotica stories that sells! The whole book is not boring to read. I love how the author guides the reader on writing erotic stories! This is really a worth reading book!
