Customer Reviews

Oh boy after reading this the second book, I am hooked. It was great. I think I have found a new series! I am eagerly awaiting book three. I suspect there is more to the male lead than meets the eye. I will recommend these books highly!

Once again the author has produced a light, quirky story. There's not a lot of character development or complexity, and the surprise twist is more of a "gotcha" than the result of obscure clues, but the story is fun and worth the time invested. I look forward to more in this series.

This Book 2 in the series is even better than the first book. More excitement and more characters to point the finger at. Lotta Smith has done a great job of tying it all together. The only disappointment I have is there is not a 3rd book out yet, I can hardly wait, I hope it is soon. Great paranormal read!

I really enjoy this series. It's light reading which is exactly what I want. This series is cute, with a little bit of life thrown in. The protagonist is a klutz. She owns her faults which makes me love her. Oh, and her family is perfect. I think that the author knows my grandmother and mother. These books will probably never be great fiction but they're great entertainment.
